Can you help? – Christian Aid Week 12th to 18th May 2019

Christian Aid Week is fast approaching and we are looking people to help with our house to house collections. Christian Aid still prefers to include the personal touch where face to face contact gives the opportunity to thank the generosity of the donor individually. However I appreciate that some people do not have time to go back to collect the envelopes, the Co-op in the village have agreed to accept donation envelopes. I will supply you with slips to go with the envelopes advising residents that they can drop their envelopes into the Co-op. You as a volunteer have a choice of whether you go back to collect or not. Understandably it is inevitable that there will be a reduction in the amount of people that donate, but if we are at least delivering envelopes people have a choice whether to donate or not.

If you feel you can support Christian Aid this year please contact me, Maria De-Loyde on 07946 587512, or via email maria.vivian@talk21.com, or sign up on the list at the back of Church. Many thanks.

Card Machine

There is a card machine sited at the back of the church for those who wish to give by card. It is set at £5 and can be increased by £5 up to £20.
